INFP

What are INFP's like?

An INFP's main goals are to discover their life's meaning and to serve humanity. They are idealists and perfectionists who drive themselves hard to achieve these goals. They are highly intuitive about people, and rely heavily on their intuitions to guide them. INFPs are thoughtful, considerate, and good listeners who put people at ease. They are reserved in expressing their own emotions but genuinely care about others and wish to understand them. INFPs are usually flexible and laid-back, but can also become aggressive defenders of the causes they believe in.

The Healer

Introvert

Quiet, reserved, and self-sufficient. Socializing drains their energy. Comfortable being alone. Processes thoughts internally. Needs time alone to recharge.

iNtuitive

Imaginative, creative, and introspective. Good at analysis of complex topics. Focuses on the future instead of the present. Trusts gut instincts.

Feeling

Uses personal values, feelings and subjective criteria to make decisions. Ruled by the heart, not the head. Diplomatic, tactful and empathetic. Motivated by appreciation and prefers to avoid arguments and conflicts.

Perceiving

Preferring spontaneity, flexibility and keeping options open. Being adaptable and going with the flow. Playful, less aware of time. Prefers to start projects, questions the need for many rules.

7 Common INFP Traits
